Yellow warning
Rain

Between 12:00 Fri 21 Feb 2020 and
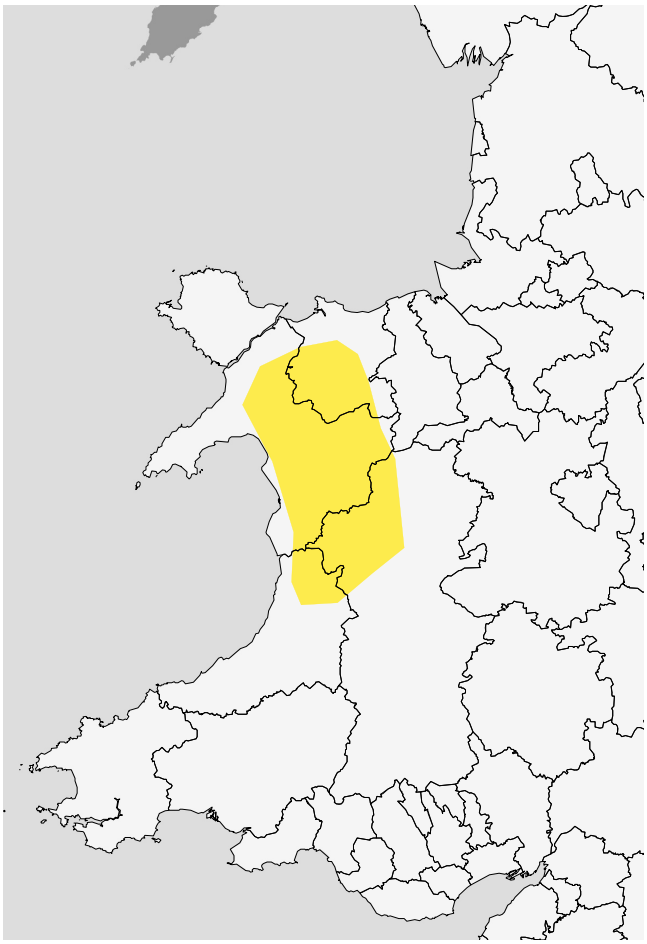
03:00 Sat 22 Feb 2020



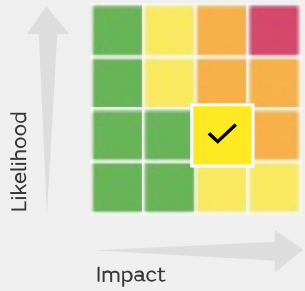
Persistent rain, heavy over hills, may lead to flooding and travel disruption during Friday and Friday night.

What to expect

- Homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Fast flowing or deep floodwater is possible, and some communities may be cut off by flooded roads
- Delays or cancellations to train and bus services are possible
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Possible power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

Further rain is expected across north Wales today. Rain will become persistent and occasionally heavy over parts of Snowdonia before clearing early on Saturday. 20-30 mm is likely to fall widely over higher ground with the potential for 60-80 mm in a few places. Given the recent wet conditions this brings a chance of flooding.



Low likelihood of medium impacts
